

100-year history of not advancing the credit of a state for private purposes. I ask you to return LR 21 to Select File for purposes of indefinite postponement.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the bill be returned? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Please vote if you care to so we can move on. Please return to your seat, if you have not done so. We are on Final Reading. Senator Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: (Mike off.) ...slow coming in. I would just as soon have us check in. I am going to do a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: All right. Would you please check in as soon as we clear the board. Now, record your presence, please. Look up at your light and record your presence, please. Senator Hefner, Senator Lowell Johnson, thank you. Senator Lynch, Senator Dierks, Senator Rogers, Senator Korshoj, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Labedz, and Senator Landis. Thank you. Now we are looking for Senator Rod Johnson. And Senator Johnson is here. The question is, shall the bill be returned? We are ready for a roll call vote. Will you please return to your desk and we will have the roll call. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 2255 of the Legislative Journal.) 25 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return the bill.

PRESIDENT: The bill shall be returned. The bill is indefinitely...the motion is indefinitely postponed. The motion is to indefinitely postpone the bill.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: (Mike off) ...arguments on the bill. Twenty-five votes are required to indefinitely postpone the bill. It clearly will not pass at this juncture as a constitutional amendment, and I suggest we simply dispose of it by putting 25 votes up there to indefinitely postpone this bill.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? I have some old lights on. Senator Marsh, did you wish to speak about this. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR MARSH: I move the previous question.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the previous question has been...Senator
